

Come and join us!

We have a lot of fun promoting a love of literature to Oxfordshire's children and we welcome new members. We value fresh ideas and suggestions to spread the love of reading and books! To join, please fill out your name and address below and send, along with a cheque payable to Oxford Children's Book Group, to:

Jackie Holderness (Chair)
oxfordcbg@gmail.com

Moira da Costa,
'Windrush', Hamels Lane,
Boars Hill, Oxford OX1 5DJ

Name.....

Address.....

.....

Tel.....

Email.....

OR email your details and pay by BACS to the OCBG account:

Bank: Lloyds Bank

Account no: 00330918

Branch Sort Code: 30-96-35

Please make sure you give your name as a reference when you pay by BACS!

We are a charity for parents, teachers, librarians, illustrators and publishers who are interested in promoting children's literature and we need your help and support!

If you care about books,
please join us!

www.ocbg.org.uk

We provide free shortlisted books to local schools so their pupils (Primary and Secondary) can take part in the annual Children's Book Award, the only award where young people judge the books!

We are a branch of the Federation of Children's Book Groups, a national charity whose aim is to bring the enjoyment of books to all children and teenagers.

The Federation of Children's Book Groups

Reg. charity No. 268289

www.fcbg.org.uk

For over 25 years, across the city and county, OCBG has worked with local teachers, schools, parents and book-lovers to help children of all ages to open the door to literacy and the joys of literature.

OCBG Creative writing workshops for older readers

In Oxford we hold at least one child-centred book event each term.

We arrange author and illustrator visits to member schools.

We also organise workshops and storytelling sessions; library events and conferences on Children's Literature; Book Swaps; Family events; and much more.

Story Sacks: OCBG donates books and story sacks to schools, hospitals and hospices.

Family event in Binsey: 150 years of Alice

Illustrator Britta Teckentrup visits an Oxford school

Janina Ramirez at OCBG Conference 2019.

OCBG Conference 2021:
Reading our way out of lockdown
Online with Robin Stevens, Tom Palmer and Griselda Heppel.

To join, the annual membership fee is as follows:

Individual : £15

Schools, groups, publishers : £15

Your membership includes special Members' events and evenings, and local and national newsletters.